

Tuition and Fees Policy

This tuition and fees policy supersedes any previously published or written policy.

Tuition and Mandatory Fees, Method of Instruction, and Refunds

Some or all instruction for all or part of an Academic Year may be delivered remotely or in a hybrid format. Tuition and mandatory fees have been set regardless of the method of instruction and will not be modified or refunded in the event instruction occurs remotely or via a hybrid model for any part of the Academic Year.

In the event Elmhurst University cancels in-progress courses because of a campus closure or institution-wide transition to remote instruction and such cancellation results in a change in a student's enrollment status, Elmhurst University may, at its discretion, refund a portion of the student's tuition and/or course-specific fees (such as lab fees). All fees are subject to change.

We believe the value of an Elmhurst University education and degree, whether in-person or remote, continues to greatly exceed tuition. Moreover, our main educational costs are continuing, as the services they provide are continuing; our infrastructure costs are continuing; and we are incurring additional costs for online education and actions we are taking to respond to the pandemic. As such, Elmhurst University does not refund tuition because of changes to the method of instruction.
